COTTON GINNING DAYS

NOVEMBER MEETING UPDATE

Members discussed the 2008 Cotton Ginning Days Festival identifying things they liked, areas to improve upon and some new things to try in 2009. Everyone is encouraged to recruit new members to GAMTRA all during the year. We had at least 19 new members to join at our 2008 show, and we are all hoping they can begin attending our monthly meetings and other outings. We encourage all our members to be active and participate as much as their schedules allow, as everyone's help is needed and appreciated.

We are already beginning to think about our 2009 monthly meetings, but we need everyone's help and request that everyone begin thinking of topics of discussion they would like presented or places to visit. Our members are always encouraged to present a short program or recommend guest speakers that can be invited. Please share your ideas at our January meeting.
